Dear Sir:

Regarding the Notice Regarding Power of Attorney form (copy attached) mailed July 19, 2005 in the above referenced application which was mailed only to prior attorneys at Foley Hoag LLP, applicants are submitting a copy of the Patent Assignment Abstract of Title for this application. Applicants filed a Revocation of Power of Power of Attorney and New Power of Attorney Form on July 14, 2005 indicating the new counsel. Not receiving any communication from the USPTO, regarding the New Power of 25776001.1

Application No.: 10/657,729

Docket No.: NY-PSS 217-US

Attorney form, applicant assumed that the New Power of Attorney form was well received by USPTO.

Applicants only became aware of that his New Power of Attorney was rejected when the undersigned attorney returned the Examiner's call regarding the status of this application on or around May 11, 2007. The Examiner informed the undersigned attorney that there is an outstanding Office Action dated October 2, 2006, which has not been responded to. This is when the undersigned attorney explained to the Examiner that he did not receive any Office Action nor any communication in this case.

Review of the PAIR database showed that the Power of Attorney form mailed on July 14, 2005 was rejected and both the rejection notice dated July 19, 2005 and the non-final Office Action dated October 2, 2006, was mailed only to the prior counsel, Foley Hoag, LLP. The prior counsel failed to forward these two documents to the undersigned.

It is noted that the signor of the Revocation form submitted on July 14, 2005, signed on behalf of Mad Max Optics, Inc. the assignee of the above referenced application. Applicants are submitting herewith a new Revocation of Power of Attorney with New Power of Attorney and Change of Correspondence Address.

In view of the foregoing, applicant respectfully request that the non-final Office Action dated October 2, 2006 be withdrawn and issued with a new date.
